From:	Ehud Barak <ehbarak1@gmail.com>
To:	yaoyue@ccsjs.com gabriel.wong@cedarac.com Mawuenyega Steve <contrastinc@yahoo.com>
CC:
Date:	Sat, 8/22/2015 12:06:17 AM
Subject:	Re: Ghana off shore oil&gas project

Gabriel Hi
Did you get my email re next steps in the Ghana Project?
EB

Sent from my iPhone

> On Aug 19, 2015, at 11:41, Ehud Barak wrote:
>
> Dear president Yao
> Dear Gabriel
>
> We are moving forward.
> Please find hereunder the update:
> 1)The Ghanian oil& gas authorities are ready, in principle, to consider JiangSu as the foreign partner/prime contractor for the project, assuming JS can bring PetroChina or another player from the Big Three as its main subcontractor.
> 2) we've convinced the Ghanian authorities to add to the proposed project an off shore acreage of high oil potential to be relinquished from Lukoil. That will make the combined project more profitable and balanced.
> 3) The project will be without bid/tender if we act fast enough.
> 4) There is no need at this stage for a MOU between JS and EB/SM (contrary to what we told you earlier).
>
> Now, that's how we see the next steps and I'll be glad to hear you remarks.
>
> a) A meeting of Steve M. Gabriel W. And hopefully myself in Istanbul in the first half of September in order to outline the road ahead and get acquainted.
> b) A visit to Accra of a mission from JS and the CH sub contractor to visit the Data Room and get acquainted with the leaders of GNPC, Explorco and high level decision makers in Ghana.
> (pl note the need to have high quality professionals to read into the DR).
> c) Following a Chinese decision, whether during the same visit or shortly afterwards, opening of fully fledged negotiations in Accra,Ghana towards a contract.
> d) EB/SM will be the coordinator of these steps working at this stage with Gabriel W.
>
> That's all up to now.
> Looking forward for your response.
>
> Best
> Ehud Barak
>
>
>
> Sent from my iPhone